

Department of Occupational Therapy

Eastern Kentucky University

Department of Occupational Therapy

Unique Features:

- Assistant/Associate rank tenure track position
- Position includes a customized combination of teaching, research and/or clinical focus
- 9 month appointment
- Summer employment available
- Inquiry-team design for research
- Endowed Chair to support faculty research
- Reasonable cost of living
- Close commuting distances
- Live in city or rural areas
- Join a large, innovative, scholarly faculty

Visionary Curricula:

- Bachelor of Science in Occupational Science
- Professional & Post-Professional Master of Science
- Collaborative PhD Program in Rehabilitation Sciences with the University of Kentucky

Educational and Professional Requirements:

- Research or clinical doctorate preferred
- ABD considered
- Recent clinical experience a plus
- Eligible for licensure in Kentucky, if required

Application Requirements:

- For additional information contact Elaine Fehringer, Chair of Search Committee; Eastern Kentucky University; Department of Occupational Therapy; Dizney 103; 521 Lancaster Avenue; Richmond, KY 40475; ● (859) 622-2281 ● Elaine.Fehringer@eku.edu

